

CLIBURN
IN THE CLASSROOM

A man in a dark blue turtleneck is seated at a black grand piano in a school gymnasium. He is playing the piano, and a camera is positioned in front of him, recording his performance. The piano's lid is open, and sheet music is on the stand. In the background, a large group of children are sitting on the gymnasium floor, watching the performance. A man in a purple shirt is standing near a table with a laptop on the left side of the frame. The gymnasium floor is light-colored wood with red and blue lines.
